EFPIA Japan

Philippe Fauchet becomes new chairman of EFPIA Japan

EFPIA Japan appoints Philippe Fauchet (President & Representative Director, GlaxoSmithKline KK) as a new chairman from January 1st, 2012.

Masuhiko Kato (AstraZeneca) becomes a new vice chairman and Hiroyuki Mitani (Novartis Pharma) stays in the current position of vice chairman. Both vice chairmen and four directors will support Philippe Fauchet, new chairman of EFPIA Japan. On the same occasion, Director General changes from Takahiro Maehama (AstraZeneca) to Keiko Nakamura (GlaxoSmithKline).

Philippe Fauchet reiterates vision of EFPIA Japan as follows;

“Society and healthcare environment are changing dramatically. In this era of reform, EFPIA Japan consisting of research-driven pharmaceutical companies based in EU will continue proposing dialogue and solutions to the many issues faced by the pharmaceutical industry such as sustaining the new pricing system supporting innovation, expediting the access of Japanese patients to global innovation and reducing the drug lag, pursuing better balance between prevention and treatment for improvement of the public health. We would like to further contribute to improve Japanese healthcare and always bear the concept of ‘patient first’ in mind”
